1275. SHRIMATI MAIMOONA SULTAN: Will the Minister of HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE be pleased to refer to Unstarred Question No. 1706 dated the 12th March, 1986 in the Rajya Sabha and state:

(a) whether it is fact that apart from Phencetine other analgesic drugs banned are Analgin and D-Proposyphene;

(b) whether it is also a fact that the combination of these are also either banned or restricted for sale in a number of other countries;

(c) the names of other drugs which are being marketed in our country along with Analgin and D-Propoxyphene in fixed dose form;

(d) the names of the countries where such combinations are being marketed;

(e) whether all the combinations of drugs with Analgin and D-proposyphene were allowed for marketing in the country on the basis of trial reports; and

(f) if so, what are the details of each report?

THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE DEPARTMENT OF FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI S. KRISHNA KUMAR): (a) No, Sir.

(b) and (d) From the information available with us Analgin is banned or restricted for use in some countries. We have no information whether combinations of Analgin and combinations of Dextropropoxyphene are banned or marketed in some countries.

(c) Information is given in the attached statement. (See below).

(e) and (f) As per the guidelines of fixed dose combinations clinical trials are not mandatory for a combination when individual drugs are marketed and widely used for many years and marketing permission is granted if such combinations has an acceptable rational.
